LEWS CASTLE GROUNDS

Explore the magnificent grounds of the 18th century Gothic Revival Lews Castle. Wander along the scenic trails and winding paths at your own pace.

LEWIS CHESSMEN

Discover the world famous Lewis Chessmen in the museum at Lews Castle, where these remarkable medieval pieces bring a fascinating chapter of Hebridean history to life.

TRYING SOME STORNOWAY BLACK PUDDING

Take the opportunity to try Stornoway Black Pudding, a world famous island delicacy. Only three Stornoway butchers are officially approved to produce this much loved Hebridean speciality.

BUY SOME HARRIS TWEED

Make a purchase of Harris Tweed. The only fabric in the world protected by its own Act of Parliament with our islands hold World Craft Region status.

HEAR SOME GAELIC SPOKEN

Head to An Taigh Ceilidh cultural centre for a coffee and a traditional Hebridean ceilidh!

LOCAL ART CENTRE & PUBLIC ART

Visit the local art centre, An Lanntair and look out for sculptures, public art and poetry throughout the town, including Seol an Iolaire

WALK THE POINT AND SANDWICK COASTAL TRAIL

This two hour walk (there and back) follows the shoreline to the Iolaire Monument from the town. The monument is dedicated to the 201 men that were drowned following the sinking of the HMV Iolaire in 1919.
